BLUE WAVE 2025 KIT LIST FOR RANGERS & STAFF

MEDICATION: Any medication must be in the original container with dosage instructions and your name. It is given to the staff first aider upon arrival.

ACCOMMODATIONS: There are two cabins with bunk beds. You will need a sleeping mat for the bunks. You can choose to bring a small tent if you prefer.

Below is a standard kit list, given to Guides to help you pack.

Bedroll - all items bundled & waterproofed in a tarp or in a stuff sack	Small Day Pack - to carry to sessions
 sleeping bag & mat small pillow (optional) extra blanket small sleeping buddy (optional) PJ's (no nightgowns) tarp & rope (for wrapping and more) mitts, toque & socks (it can get cold at night) 	 camp hat (on head) water bottle (filled) insect repellant & sun screen (no aerosols) lip balm (to protect lips from the sun) whistle (optional)

Main Pack (ideal: back-pack)
GARMENTS (includes what you wear to camp) • socks and underwear • 2 pr. Long pants • 1 pr. shorts • 2 short-sleeved t-shirts (no tank tops) • 1 long sleeved shirt • 1 sweatshirt or sweater	OUTDOOR GARMENTS (includes what you wear to camp) • rain gear: raincoat or poncho & rain pants • rubber boots (morning dew) • running shoes (no open toe shoes) • jacket
 DITTY BAG (a mesh bag, not plastic, with drawstrings for hanging) dishes: plate, bowl, cup or mug (non-breakable but sturdy, no paper items) cutlery: knife, fork, spoon oven mitts (for cooking) 3 clothes pegs & tea towel (optional) 	TOILETRIES - toothbrush & toothpaste - wipes for morning "sponge bath" (optional) - deodorant - brush, comb & hair ties or elastics - camp towel & face cloth
GEAR• flashlight with extra batteries• book for quiet time (optional)• ashes for campfire (optional)• fire kit (if you have one)• zip-lock bags to keep things nice & dry	SPECIAL GEAR FOR THIS CAMP none