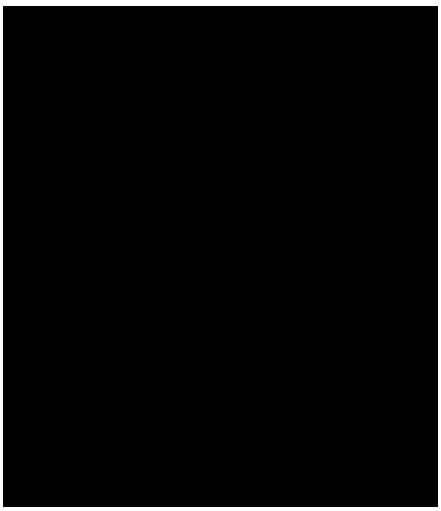
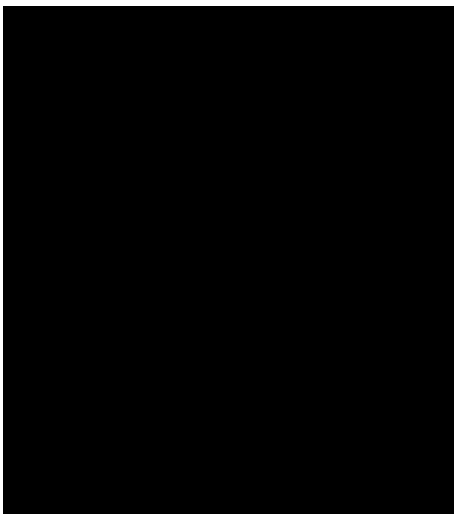
- Snacks (optional, but you are allowed to have food in your rooms, please be considerate of the shared space.) Please note that brown-bag snacks will also be provided by the conference committee at registration that can be enjoyed at your leisure.
- Cash for the Ideas Market (Sunday Morning)

When (& What) am I Eating?
If you have dietary issues, please reach out to ns-confreg@girlguides.ca to discuss your needs. It may not be possible to accommodate all food/dietary needs/allergies/sensitivities, but our registrars will be able to discuss options.

Meals will be at the cafeteria (Morrison Hall) and food cannot be taken from the cafeteria.

Certificate
Following the conference, all attendees will receive a certificate of attendance by email. This certificate confirms your participation in the conference and can be uploaded to iMIS to record your Guiding development. Be sure to watch your inbox after the event so you can celebrate your participation and easily log this experience in your records.





CONFERENCE
POLICIES & REGULATIONS

Conference Office and First Aid station
The conference office is to be determined; this location will also house the First Aid office. Please watch our social media channels (Facebook & Instagram @ggcnovascotia) for updates as they become available.

Call for First Aiders – Volunteers Needed
We are in need of volunteers to serve as First Aiders during the event. First Aiders will be on site to help ensure adequate First Aid support for all participants and will be easily identifiable by a white scarf with a First Aid crest. If you are interested in volunteering as a First Aider, please email ns-conference@girlguides.ca and/or ns-conference1@girlguides.ca with “First Aider for Conference” in the subject headline.

Code of Conduct
All Guiders are expected to respect Girl Guides of Canada Code of Conduct, which will be posted at the Conference Office.

Substance Use:
No smoking at any times inside the buildings on campus. No smoking within 7.5 meters of any building on campus this includes tobacco and cannabis.

Alcohol on campus is permitted in your rooms only, no open liquor in the common areas or hallways.

Pictures/Videotaping:
Conference activities might be photographed and/or videotaped. As you can appreciate with an event of this size, Girl Guides of Canada, Nova Scotia Council cannot assume responsibility in the event that your picture may be recorded. We ask that Conference participants who do not wish their picture recorded take responsibility for managing this on their own.

Fragrance:
This Conference is a “Fragrance Free” event. To help every Guider enjoy the Conference, please be mindful of what you wear. In addition to no perfume, this includes scents in shampoos, deodorants, etc.

Emergency Contact and Telephone Service:
In the event of an emergency, the front desk staff at the St. FX accommodations will be available to assist you. For conference-based emergencies, please call Cindy O’Hearn at (902) 488-6352 or Mary Louise Johnson at (902) 691-0679. For serious emergencies (medical, fire, or immediate danger), call 911 right away.

Travel Assistance Guidelines
There will be prorated travel assistance provided for participants. Assistance with travel costs is available in accordance with the following guidelines:

Travel for vehicles with 4+ participants will be paid .60cents/km
Travel for vehicles with 3 participants will be paid .50cents/km
Travel for vehicles with 2 or less participants will be paid .40 cents/km

Drivers will be required to provide their email address and they will be sent information after the Conference regarding mileage claims.
